Introduction

Hotwire Communications' Acceptable Use Policy is intended to enhance the use of the Internet by preventing unacceptable use, as defined below. All users of Hotwire's Internet services (the "Services"), those who use our Services without having an account ("Visitors"), as well as those who pay a monthly service fee to subscribe to the Services ("Members"), must comply with this AUP. We support the free-flow of information and ideas over the Internet and do not actively monitor use of the Services under normal circumstances. Similarly, we do not exercise editorial control over the content of any website, electronic mail transmission, newsgroup, or other material created or accessible over or through the Services, except for certain proprietary websites. In accordance with our Internet Service Agreement, we may, however, remove any materials that, in our sole discretion, may be illegal, may subject us to liability, or which may violate this AUP. Hotwire may cooperate with legal authorities and/or third parties in the investigation of any suspected or alleged crime or civil wrong. Violation of this AUP may result in the suspension or termination of either access to the Services and/or access to a Hotwire account. This AUP should be read in conjunction with our Internet Service Agreement and other policies located at www.gethotwired.com/terms.

REPORTING VIOLATIONS OF HOTWIRE'S AUP

Hotwire requests that anyone who believes that there is a violation of this AUP direct the information to Hotwire Customer Service at: cs@hotwirecommunication.com.

If available, please provide the following information:

- The IP address used to commit the alleged violation;
- The date and time of the alleged violation, including time zone or offset from GMT; and
- Evidence of the alleged violation.

Email with full header information provides all of the above, as do syslog files. Other situations will require different methods of providing the above information.

Hotwire may take any one or more of the following actions in response to complaints:

- Issue written or verbal warnings;
- Suspend a Member's account;
- Terminate a Member's account;
- Bill a Member for administrative costs and/or reactivation charges; and/or
- Bring legal action to enjoin violations and/or to collect damages, if any, caused by violations.

REVISIONS TO THIS ACCEPTABLE USE POLICY

Hotwire reserves the right to revise, amend, or modify this AUP, our Internet Service Agreement, and/or other policies and agreements at any time and in any manner. Notice of any revision, amendment, or modification will be posted in accordance with the Internet Service Agreement.

Inappropriate Content and Transmissions

Hotwire reserves the right, but not the obligation, to refuse to transmit or post and to remove or block any information or materials, in whole or in part, that it, in its sole discretion, deems to be offensive, indecent, or otherwise inappropriate, regardless of whether this material or its dissemination is unlawful. Neither Hotwire nor any of its affiliates, suppliers, or agents have any obligation to monitor transmissions or postings (including, but not limited to, e-mail, newsgroup, and instant message transmissions as well as materials available on the Personal Web Pages and Online Storage features) made on the Service. However, Hotwire and its affiliates, suppliers, and agents have the right to monitor these transmissions and postings from time to time for violations of this Policy and to disclose, block, or remove them in accordance with the Service Agreement and any other applicable agreements and policies.

Electronic Mail

The Service may not be used to send unsolicited bulk or commercial messages and may not be used to collect responses from unsolicited e-mail sent from accounts on other Internet hosts or e-mail services that violate this Policy or the acceptable use policy of any other Internet service provider. Moreover, unsolicited e-mail may not direct the recipient to any website or other resource that uses the Service. Activities that have the effect of facilitating unsolicited commercial e-mail or unsolicited bulk e-mail, whether or not the e-mail is commercial in nature, are prohibited. Forging, altering, or removing electronic mail headers is prohibited. You may not reference Hotwire or the Hotwire network (e.g. by including "Organization: Hotwire" in the header or by using an IP address that belongs to Hotwire or the Hotwire network) in any unsolicited e-mail even if that e-mail is not sent through the Hotwire network or Service.

Hotwire is not responsible for deleting or forwarding any e-mail sent to the wrong e-mail address by you or by someone else trying to send e-mail to you. Hotwire is also not responsible for forwarding e-mail sent to any account that has been suspended or terminated. This e-mail will be returned to the sender, ignored, deleted, or stored temporarily at Hotwire's sole discretion. In the event that Hotwire believes in its sole discretion that any subscriber name, account name, or e-mail address (collectively, an "identifier") on the Service may be used for, or is being used for, any misleading, fraudulent, or other improper or illegal purpose, Hotwire (i) reserves the right to block access to and prevent the use of any such identifier and (ii) may at any time require any customer to change his or her identifier. In addition, Hotwire may at any time reserve any identifiers on the Service for Hotwire's own purposes.

Newsgroups

Messages posted to newsgroups must comply with the written charters or FAQs for those newsgroups as well as any other terms and conditions applicable to any particular newsgroups or provider of newsgroups. Advertisements, solicitations, or other commercial messages should be posted only in those newsgroups whose charters or FAQs explicitly permit them. You are responsible for determining the policies of a given newsgroup before posting to it. Hotwire reserves the right to discontinue access to any newsgroup at any time for any reason.

Instant Messages and Video Messages

Members and Visitors alone are responsible for the contents of their instant messages and video messages and the consequences of any such messages. Hotwire assumes no responsibility for the timeliness, mis-delivery, deletion or failure to store instant messages or video messages.

Security

You are responsible for any misuse of the Service, even if the misuse was committed by a friend, family member, or guest with access to your Service account. Therefore, you must take steps to ensure that others do not use your account to gain unauthorized access to the Service by, for example, strictly maintaining the confidentiality of your Service login and password. In all cases, you are solely responsible for the security of any device you choose to connect to the Service, including any data stored or shared on that device. Hotwire recommends against enabling file or printer sharing unless you do so in strict compliance with all security recommendations and features provided by Hotwire and the manufacturer of the applicable file or printer sharing devices. Any files or devices you choose to make available for shared access on a home LAN, for example, should be protected with a strong password or as otherwise appropriate.

Network, Bandwidth, Data Storage and Other Limitations

Hotwire may provide versions of the Service with different speeds and bandwidth usage limitations, among other characteristics, subject to applicable Service plans. You shall ensure that your use of the Service does not restrict, inhibit, interfere with, or degrade any other user's use of the Service, nor represent (in the sole judgment of Hotwire) an overly large burden on the network. In addition, you shall ensure that your use of the Service does not restrict, inhibit, interfere with, disrupt, degrade, or impede Hotwire's ability to deliver and provide the Service and monitor the Service, backbone, network nodes, and/or other network services.

You further agree to comply with all Hotwire network, bandwidth, and data storage and usage limitations. You shall ensure that your bandwidth consumption using the Service does not exceed the limitations that are now in effect or may be established in the future. If your use of the Service results in the consumption of bandwidth in excess of the applicable limitations, that is a violation of this Policy. In such cases, Hotwire may, in its sole discretion, terminate or suspend your Service account or request that you subscribe to a version of the Service with higher bandwidth usage limitations if you wish to continue to use the Service at higher bandwidth consumption levels.

In addition, you may only access and use the Service with a dynamic Internet Protocol ("IP") address that adheres to the dynamic host configuration protocol ("DHCP"). You may not configure the Service or any related equipment to access or use a static IP address or use any protocol other than DHCP unless you are subject to a Service plan that expressly permits otherwise.

Violation of Acceptable Use Policy

Hotwire does not routinely monitor the activity of Service accounts for violation of this AUP. However, in our efforts to promote good citizenship within the Internet community, we will respond appropriately if we become aware of inappropriate use of our Service. Although Hotwire has no obligation to monitor the Service and/or the network, Hotwire and its suppliers reserve the right at any time to monitor bandwidth, usage, transmissions, and content from time to time to operate the Service; to identify violations of this Policy; and/or to protect the network, the Service and Hotwire users.

Hotwire prefers to advise customers of inappropriate behavior and any necessary corrective action. However, if the Service is used in a way that Hotwire or its suppliers, in their sole discretion, believe violate this AUP, Hotwire or its suppliers may take any responsive actions they deem appropriate. These actions include, but are not limited to, temporary or permanent removal of content, cancellation of newsgroup posts, filtering of Internet transmissions, and the immediate suspension or termination of all or any portion of the Service. Neither Hotwire nor its affiliates, suppliers, or agents will have any liability for any these responsive actions. These actions are not Hotwire's exclusive remedies and Hotwire may take any other legal or technical action it deems appropriate.

Hotwire reserves the right to investigate suspected violations of this AUP, including the gathering of information from the user or users involved and the complaining party, if any, and examination of material on Hotwire's servers and network. During an investigation, Hotwire may suspend the account or accounts involved and/or remove or block material that potentially violates this Policy. You expressly authorize Hotwire and its suppliers to cooperate with (i) law enforcement authorities in the investigation of suspected legal violations, and (ii) and system administrators at other Internet service providers or other network or computing facilities in order to enforce this Policy. This cooperation may include Hotwire providing available personally identifiable information about you to law enforcement or system administrators, including, but not limited to, username, subscriber name, and other account information. Upon termination of your account, Hotwire is authorized to delete any files, programs, data and e-mail messages associated with your account.

The failure of Hotwire or its suppliers to enforce this AUP, for whatever reason, shall not be construed as a waiver of any right to do so at any time. You agree that if any portion of this Policy is held invalid or unenforceable, that portion will be construed consistent with applicable law as nearly as possible, and the remaining portions will remain in full force and effect.

You agree to indemnify, defend and hold harmless Hotwire and its affiliates, suppliers, and agents against all claims and expenses (including reasonable attorney fees) resulting from you engaging in any of the prohibited activities listed in this AUP or resulting from your violation of the AUP or of any other posted Hotwire policy related to the Service. Your indemnification will survive any termination of the Subscriber Agreement.
